

Kapampangan Independence is imminent

A warning to the Government of the Republic of the Philippines

Fellglow Keep, Ryan Mello, and Vexillum
Feb 22

Pillar of Liberty was instructed by the Provisional Assembly of the Kapampangan Republic to air this message to the wider world. We are not responsible for any violence that happens later this year.

A Prophetic Cry against the Philippine Abomination

TO: The Government of the Republic of the Philippines
FROM: The Sovereign Kapampangan People; The Sovereign Sambal People; The Free Ilocano and Tagalog peoples who reside therewith in Kapampangan lands
DATE: 2026-01-26
SUBJECT: THE DESOLATION FALLS AGAINST YOU

Hear, O Heavens, and give ear, for the Bandit Republic has transgressed. Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Manila, who stumble in judgment! You have said in your heart, “We are a nation unified,” but you are a house divided against itself. You have built your house upon the sands of Liberalism and the shifting dunes of Globalism, and the rains have descended, and the floods have come, and the winds have blown, and great is the fall of it.

The Indictment of the Liberal Abomination

Behold, the generation of rent-seeking professionals has risen, a people wise in their own eyes. They have forsaken the paths of prudence and excellence, and have not walked in the ways of their fathers. They have bowed down to the idols of Credentials and Degrees, saying, “These shall save us,” but they are broken cisterns that can hold no water. You have sought to create a new humanity in the image of the Liberal Regime, a creature of mass consumption and atomized desire. You have despised the high-trust community, preferring the low-trust society where brother betrays brother for a morsel of bureaucratic favor.

The Condemnation of Degeneracy

Woe unto you, rent-seeking Scribes and Pharisees! You journalists, professionals, humanities graduates, computer programmers, traitor scientists—you travel across land and sea to make a single proselyte, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

You have corrupted the youth, teaching them that the highest good is the ego and that pleasure is the only truth. You have normalized the abomination of gender confusion, stripping the innate identity from the created order, seeking to remake man in the image of your own fluidity. You call this “liberation,” but it is the very chain of slavery—a soul untethered from nature, family, and God.

Look at your works, ye Mighty, and despair! The rubble of your Masonic temples and the decay of your institutions are a testimony against you. The earthquake shakes the foundations of your pride, yet you do not repent. You persist in Liberalism, believing that procedure can replace prudence and that regulations can replace righteousness.

Denunciation of the Central Yoke

You have sought to homogenize the tribes of the Archipelago, forcing the distinct children of the River into the mold of the Swamp. You have taxed the productive to feed the idle dreams of the center. You have despised the mangapiya and the local notable, replacing the noble duty of obligation with the cold tyranny of clipboard and red tape.

The crimes of your Liberal revolution cry out to Heaven for vengeance. You have traded the birthright of sovereignty for a mess of pottage called “National Identity,” which is no identity at all, but a hollow shell painted with the colors of vanity.

FINAL DEMANDS

Therefore, because you have rejected the Cornerstone, the stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. We, the Kapampangan people, assert our God-given right to distinct existence.

We demand restitution for the century of treachery.

I. RECOGNITION OF SOVEREIGNTY

We demand the formal recognition of the Kapampangan Republic as a sovereign entity. We will no longer be subjects of your Liberal oversight. We seek to restore the governance of mangapiya and the freedom of timawa, far from the shadow of your degenerate despotism.

II. SURRENDER OF CONDEMNED INDIVIDUALS

We demand the surrender of the condemned. Deliver up those who have plagued our people—those who have imposed the tyranny of the degree, the degeneracy of the media, and the corruption of the banks. The individuals and their families who have grown fat on the condemned's spoils must be brought to the gallows of justice to answer for their trespasses.

If you refuse these just demands, know this: Your house is left to you, desolate. The bureaucratic nation-state trusts in the armor of their institutions, but a stronger than they shall come upon them. He shall take away all their armor wherein they trusted, and divide their spoils. The Abomination stands in the holy place. Let the reader understand. The Republic's chastisements shall not cease until the Revolution is repented of, and the false idols are cast down.

- taken from the pillarofliberty substack

Pillar of Liberty is free today. But if you enjoyed this post, you can tell Pillar of Liberty that their writing is valuable by pledging a future subscription. You won't be charged unless they enable payments.